

LIS Weekly Newsflash

November 18th, 2022

Hello LIS Families!

We had a wonderful treat yesterday at LIS! A big thank you to Dairyland, 49th Parallel Grocery and Oceanview Church for the milk and cookies for the entire school! All cookies were nut free and they even thought to bake some gluten free and dairy free cookies so that everyone could partake. What a wonderful "hug" from our community!

Creative Kids Art PAC Fundraiser

By now, you should have received a copy of the art your child created with how to order some wonderful gifts in time for Christmas on the back of the sheet. We do need the original art sheet back to school on Monday, Nov 21st as we have to send them to the company to make up your orders.

Ladysmith Light Up

It's coming on November 24th. Please see the attached memo from the Town of Ladysmith regarding street closures that day. Watch for the LIS gingerbread art bomb which will be hanging from the trees along First Avenue. We are working with the Town Of Ladysmith to contribute and we are thrilled to share the talents of our students to add to the Ladysmith Light Up spirit! Thank you to Mr. Paugh and his class who will string them up on Monday afternoon.

Winter Show

Please see the attached ticket request form and poster for details on attending one of the three shows. Paper copies available in the office as well. Thank you for understanding that due to gym capacity, we need to limit number of guests per student. Requests are due back by Friday, December 2nd. Our wonderful PAC is cooking up some fundraisers so please stay tuned.

We will also be collecting donations at each show for our memorial bench in honour of Ms. Furlan.

*We are grateful to live,
work, play and learn
